EXT. OCEAN - RIVERINE CRAFT - NIGHT

Rain pours and lightning strikes. In the distance is the shoreline of Miller Island. Waves splash into the wheelhouse and an alarm BLARES.

KYA, 28, injured, dazed, dry blood on clothes, she wakes and scrambles to her feet, and grabs the steering wheel. She pushes a button on the steering column and the alarm stops.

BOAT A.I. (V.O.)
Warning. Severe weather alert.

Huge waves rock the boat.

Kya scoffs and steadies the boat.

KYA
Oh, I haven't noticed--

--The boat CRASHES into something under it.

Kya smacks her head on the side of the wheelhouse. Blood drips from her forehead.

BOAT A.I. (V.O.)
Warning. Warning. Propeller system nonfunctional.

Kya presses a hand against her wound.

KYA
Hopefully, it slows down before I hit the shoreline.

Another huge wave propels the boat onto the shoreline.

EXT. MILLER ISLAND SHORELINE - NIGHT

Citizens stand along a stone wall with drinks in hand.

The headlights of the boat start to shine on them. They all look towards the boat in horror.

CITIZEN WOMAN
Everyone, watch out!

Citizens SCREAM and run away.

Kya tightens her grip on the wheel. She tries to steer the boat clear of the citizens.

KYA
Come on, come on, come on.

The boat skids into the sand, hydroplanes a bit and CRASHES into the stone wall. Kya slams against the steering column. Smoke and sparks rise from the boat.

Kya limps to the side of the boat. She throws one leg over the side and falls into the sand.

KYA (CONT'D)
Somebody, help.
